

RECESSION

*The bridal party leaves the sanctuary for the signing of the register.
When the party returns, the minister may say the following or similar words.
Ladies and gentlemen, I present to you Mr and Mrs _____.
The congregation may greet the couple with applause.
Any necessary announcements may be made before the bridal party leaves the church.*

What happens next?

1. We meet and you hand the Pastor the Notice of Intention to Marry with relevant ID.
2. You do the PREPARE inventory online individually after receiving an email from theme with the appropriate directions on accessing the inventory. (Cost is $40.00 paid to Pastor (cash or electronic transfer: Commonwealth Bank BSB 066179 Acc No 1048 3849)
3. We meet again to go through the options in the marriage rite and choose the options you both want in the rite.
4. We meet to talk through the PREPARE material once or twice
5. We meet to finally plan the Marriage ceremony

Getting Hitched

Talking about how it is done at St Petri Lutheran Church

So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let no one separate."

Jesus (Matthew 19:6)

We are glad that you have decided to get married!

We believe marriage is gift of God's grace for all people and we are glad you have chosen to seek God's presence and blessing on your big day and in your married life.

The Lutheran church believes that;

1. God, the Creator of humankind, instituted marriage. It is part of the created social order. So society, through custom or legislation, decides when a man and a woman are in fact married (Genesis 1:27,28; 2:18-24; Matthew 19:3-9; Augsburg Confession 16 and 28; Apology 23.9).
2. Marriage is the union of a man and a woman. This union excludes all other people. It is publicly and voluntarily entered into for the whole of life (Matthew 19:6; 1 Corinthians 7:39).
3. The purpose of marriage is
 - to unite one man and one woman (that is, husband and wife) so that they become 'one flesh'.
 - In this relationship the one person is the complement of the other (Matthew 19:5)
 - to produce children and to care for their upbringing within the framework of a family (Ephesians 6:1-4)
 - to provide an appropriate place and context for a man and a woman to share their sexual dimension of their relationship (1Corinthians 7:2,3).

We ask you to prepare for your marriage by completing a specially designed and well researched process called PREPARE. This is way for you to gain some perspectives you may not have on the strengths and areas for attention and growth and to talk these through together before you make your vows to each other publicly and before God.

The purpose of PREPARE and all of our meeting together is to help you to communicate about the important things that make for your relationship remaining the most healthiest and so enjoyable and fulfilling it can be.

We that that you prepare well for your wedding day and your marriage relationship and that this whole process of preparing is a great blessing to you.

LORD'S PRAYER

The minister may lay his hands on the couple as the congregation says:

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and forever. Amen.

The man and woman stand.

SONG

A song may be sung.

GOD SENDS US OUT

GOD BLESSES US

The minister says one of the following to the congregation.

EITHER

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit +, be with you all.

Amen.

OR

(May) God, who gives patience and encouragement, help you to live in harmony as you follow Christ Jesus, so that together you may praise God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ; and the blessing of almighty God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit +, be with you always.

Amen.

OR

Let us pray. (As we pray, respond to each prayer with the words 'Lord, hear our prayer'.)

Lord God, our ever-present helper and counsellor: Be with N and N, who have promised each other lifelong love and faithfulness in marriage.

Lord, hear us.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Guide and strengthen them by your Holy Spirit to fulfil this promise.

Lord, hear us.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Make them of one mind, and help them to live together in harmony with each other.

Lord, hear us.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Make their home your dwelling-place, and teach them to ask you for whatever they need.

Lord, hear us.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Give them joy in their work and let your blessing rest upon it.

Lord, hear us.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Make them ready to ask and receive forgiveness from each other.

Lord, hear us.

Lord, hear our prayer.

When their life on earth is over, bring them to your eternal home; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

The LCA Marriage Rite

This is the full marriage Rite with all options, including variations on wording, places for songs and affirmation by parents. Not everything has to be done exactly like shown in this rite.

WE GATHER IN GOD'S PRESENCE

ENTRANCE

The minister, together with the bridegroom and his attendant(s), may enter the church/wedding venue. They all turn to meet the bridal party as it forms a procession from the rear of the church/wedding venue.

HYMN

The congregation may stand and sing an appropriate hymn, or appropriate music may be played, as the procession enters.

OPENING

The minister says one of the following.

EITHER

God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give you grace and peace.

Amen.

OR

In the name of the Father and of the Son + and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

PRESENTATION

The parents may present the couple to be married. The minister asks the presenters to stand, if they are not already in position, and says:

Who presents N and N to be married?

I/We do.

SONG

a song may be sung.

GOD SPEAKS TO US

PRAYER

The minister says:

Let us pray for N and N who have come to be married.

One of the following prayers or another suitable prayer is said.

EITHER

Eternal God, our creator and redeemer: As you have established marriage and desire to make it holy, pour out your Spirit on N and N, so that they may live faithfully in the state of marriage to your glory and for their good; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

OR

Lord Jesus Christ, as you were present at the wedding at Cana and blessed it, be present at this wedding and bless N and N. Fill them with your joy in their life together, and grant that they may finally celebrate with you the marriage feast that has no end.

Amen.

OR

Faithful God, since you have established marriage, unite N and N as they make their vows publicly to each other, and help them to remain faithful throughout their lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

PSALM

A psalm may be sung or said. It may be said antiphonally by the minister and the congregation. The following psalms are suitable: Psalms 23; 37:3–7; 100; 117; 127; 128.

READINGS

One or more readings may be read by the minister or a reader. The reader says:

Hear the word of the Lord as it is written in —.

GOD BLESSES US AS WE PRAY

BLESSING OF COUPLE

The minister lays his hands on them and says one of the following.

EITHER

Live together in faith and love, so that your marriage may reflect the union of Christ with his bride the church. And the blessing of God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit +, be with you always.

Amen.

OR

God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit bless, protect, and enrich you + in your married life.

Amen.

PRAYER

One of the following prayers or another prayer is said.

EITHER

Let us pray.

Eternal God, our creator and preserver: Be with N and N, so that they may keep the promises made to each other, and may always live together in peace and love; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

OR

Let us pray.

Gracious God, our heavenly Father, as you have united N and N in marriage: Help them to live together according to your word. Strengthen them in faithfulness and love toward each other. Help them to accept and love N, N, and N [children of previous marriage], so that they may grow together as a family.) Watch over them in the joys and troubles of their life. Keep them in the fellowship of your church. Strengthen their faith in you and encourage them to serve each other; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

EXCHANGE OF RINGS

If a wedding ring is to be given (or rings exchanged), the minister receives it (them) and gives it (them) to the man (the man and the woman in turn) to be put on the fourth finger of the partner's left hand.

The minister says:

Take this ring and say after me:

EITHER

N, Receive this ring as a pledge and token of wedded love and faithfulness.

OR

N, I give you this ring as a sign of our marriage and the vows we have made today.

DECLARATION OF MARRIAGE

The minister says to the man and woman:

Turn to each other and join your right hands.

The minister may place his right hand on their hands.

He says to the congregation:

Since N and N have promised themselves to each other before God and in the presence of us all, I, as a servant of God and by the authority of the Commonwealth of Australia, declare them to be husband and wife. What God has joined together, let no-one separate.

The bridegroom may raise the bride's veil.

AFFIRMATION BY PARENTS

The parents of the couple (or children) may come forward to greet them.

The minister may say to the parents/children:

Do you, parents/N and N, give your blessing to this marriage?

We give our blessing to N and N.

The following readings are suitable: Genesis 1:26–31; Genesis 2:18–24; Genesis 24:50,51,58–67; Ecclesiastes 9:7–10; Song of Songs 2:10–13; Song of Songs 8:6,7; Isaiah 63:7–9; John 2:1–11; John 15:7–12; John 15:9–17; Romans 8:37–39; Romans 12:1,2,9–12; Romans 15:5–7; 1 Corinthians 12:31 – 13:13; Ephesians 5:31–33; Colossians 3:12–19; 1 John 4:7–11,19.

After the reading, the response is said:

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

THE MARRIAGE RITE

FOUNDATION AND PURPOSE OF MARRIAGE

The minister reads some or all of the following passages to the congregation and particularly to the couple to be married.

God established marriage as the basis of family life, and for the wellbeing of human society. He said: 'It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him a helper as his partner'.

OR

God created humankind in his image, in the image of God he created them; male and female he created them. God blessed them, and God said to them, 'Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth and subdue it'. God saw everything that he had made, and indeed, it was very good.

OR

Our Lord Jesus Christ said: Haven't you read that at the beginning the Creator 'made them male and female', and said, 'For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and the two will become one flesh'? So they are no longer two, but one. Therefore what God has joined together, let no-one separate.

OR

The apostle Paul says to Christian couples: Be subject to one another out of reverence for Christ. Wives, be subject to your husbands as you are to the Lord. For the husband is the head of the wife as Christ is the head of the church, his body, of which he is the Saviour. Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her. In the same way, husbands should love their wives as they do their own bodies.

So then, N and N, our Lord promises to bless those who honour his purpose for marriage and remain faithful to each other in it.

DECLARATION OF INTENT

The minister says one of the following to the man.

EITHER

I therefore ask you: N, will you have N as your wife, to live together faithfully in marriage?

Yes, I will.

OR

I therefore ask you: N, will you have N as your wife, to live together, as God has ordained, in the state of marriage? Will you love her, comfort her, honour and protect her, and, forsaking all others, be faithful to her, as long as you both shall live?

Yes, I will.

The minister says one of the following to the woman.

EITHER

N, will you have N as your husband, to live together faithfully in marriage?

Yes, I will.

OR

N, will you have N as your husband, to live together, as God has ordained, in the state of marriage? Will you love him, comfort him, honour and protect him, and, forsaking all others, be faithful to him, as long as you both shall live?

Yes, I will.

VOWS

N and N, join your right hands and say after me.

The man

EITHER

I, N (full name...), in the presence of God and these witnesses,
take you, N, to be my wife;
and I promise to be faithful to you
as long as we live.

OR

I, N....,
in the presence of God,
take you, N, to be my wife;
to have and to hold from this day forward,
for better for worse,
for richer for poorer,
in sickness and in health,
to love and to cherish,
so long as we both shall live.
This is my solemn vow.

The woman

EITHER

I, N,
in the presence of God and these witnesses,
take you, N, to be my husband;
and I promise to be faithful to you
as long as we live.

OR

I, N....,
in the presence of God,
take you, N, to be my husband;
to have and to hold from this day forward,
for better for worse,
for richer for poorer,
in sickness and in health,
to love and to cherish,
so long as we both shall live.
This is my solemn vow.
